Angel Villegas

Angel is making his on-stage debut with this production. He is a photographer, intellectual, actor, writer and filmmaker who has interest in music and the visual and performing arts. He got interested in the arts after investigating and seeing the most prestigious and awarded films of all time, expanding his intelligence, his liking of American and international cinema and old-school music. He shows potential in acting and hopes to keep performing even if he's looking forward to filmmaking. Angel Villegas is inspired by actors such as Robert DeNiro, Jack Nicholson, Jeff Bridges, Al Pacino, Michael Douglas and Dustin Hoffman. Angel is currently looking for a crew to make an independent film to go for competition to the Sundance film festival.
